Tableau Royale

Kevin Kaisershot

THE WORK:

A tableau can be defined as a picturesque grouping of persons, striking a pose. So too is my vision of this piece as I see a group of individuals in a statuesque, albeit somewhat regal setting, each with a dignified character of their own and each with something to say.

PERFORMANCE TIPS:

Each voice in this piece has at some point or another the opportunity to "lead." With that in mind the leader/speaker should be allowed to do so with the others paying attention (i.e providing support but not overshadowing the leader) The tempo should remain steady throughout as all voices in the piece are of a collective thought and do not distance themselves from the other two. The style as one would suspect then is pompous!

This work is part of a growing series of original pieces by this talented composer. Many of these titles are already found on contest lists throughout the country.

These like-instrument ensemble works are designed to be performed by junior high and high school level musicians. They are ideal for use in festivals and competitions as well as in concerts, church services, and other special events. All pieces are melodically and rhythmically creative with all parts being interesting and suitable in difficulty. (Easy-Medium, Medium)

Besides their use as like-instrument pieces, they are all interchangeable and will work with any combination of the brass or woodwind instruments (flute, clarinet, saxophone, horn, trumpet, trombone and tuba). This means that any non-standard combinations of instruments will have access to these terrific works.

Other titles in this series:

Elegy, Scherzo Diabolique, Novelette, Danse a la Gigue, Modern Day Madrigal, Rondeau Gracieuse, Moments Majestique and Musical Tag
