Sonata
for Bassoon and Winds

Benedetto Marcello

Arranged by David Marlatt

THE WORK: This Sonata was originally a four movement work for solo cello and strings. There are three movements arranged here and the order of those movements has been altered to facilitate this new setting.

THE ARRANGEMENT: The melodic material has been altered a fair amount to make an interesting work for woodwind quintet. At times the solo line has been split up among other members of the ensemble to not only make the piece more interesting but also to give the bassoon player some rest! All dynamics and articulations have been added by the arranger and may be altered or ignored by members of the quintet. The matching of style and articulations is important when an instrument takes over the melody from the soloist. The bassoon player should stand in front of the ensemble to help establish the solo sound, with the remainder of the ensemble playing in support.
